WARM SUMMER WEATHER

Is a Regular "Bonanza" for Insects.

They thrive and breed like "wildfire." No matter if your house is screened, Roaches, Moths, Flies and Mosquitoes will get in. These filthy carriers of discomfort and disease will give you trouble unless you combat them. Don't give 'em a chance—USE FENOLE, that cleanly spray, that peerless household disinfectant and insect destroyer.

Miss Dame Entertained for Misses Dean

Honoring Misses Helen and Dorothy Dean, who were her classmates at Brenau College last winter and who are being beautifully feted on their first visit to Ocala, the guests of their cousins, Misses Catharine and Mary Harriet Livingston, Miss Lois Dame entertained from 10 to one o'clock today at a charmingly appointed party, at the attractive home of her sister, Mrs. H. W. Tucker on Oklawaha avenue.

The appointments of the party carried out the Brenau colors, gold and black. Yellow daisies were lavishly used, hundreds being clustered in vases and jardiniere to enhance the attractiveness of the cool veranda, where the nine card tables were placed, and the reception hall where Miss Dame, Misses Dean and the hostess' step-mother, Mrs. C. H. Dame, a bride of last month, received informally.

To the delight of all present Miss Haycraft and Miss Catharine Pyles rendered several piano and vocal solos.

The tally cards were hand painted in daisies. For making top score Miss Gladys Wallis was awarded a pair of silk hose and to the honorees were presented crepe de chene handkerchiefs. The prizes were prettily tied with yellow ribbons.

At noon the tables were spread with dainty cloths and a tempting lunch served, consisting of chicken salad, potato chips, wafers, olives, pickles, sandwiches and ice tea. The lovely hostess was assisted in entertaining and serving by her mother and sister and Mrs. J. E. Johnson.

Spending the morning around the card tables with Miss Dame and Misses Dean were Misses Martha Kate Rantz, Blair Woodrow, Franklin Harvey, Catharine and Mildred Pyles, Stella and Nina Camp, Catharine and Mary Harriet Livingston, Marion and Dorothy Long, Emma Perry Sue Moore, Ethel Haycraft, Marie Haile, Virginia Sistrunk, Elizabeth Davis, Annie Pope Eagleton, Blanch Whaley, Margaret Jackson, Theo and Gladys Wallis, Elsie Meade, Rexie Todd, Nellie Beckham, Alice Sexton, Mabel Meffert, May Hall, Sarah Pearl Martin, Ellen Stripling, Margaret Wade, Musie Bullock and Gladys Martin.

Mrs. C. S. Cullen and youngest son Spencer, and her sister, Miss Miriam Pasteur, leave Monday for a several weeks' trip through the west. They will be joined in San Francisco by Mr. Cullen, who left sometime ago for the northwest on business. Charles and Ralph Cullen will visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pasteur at Lake Weir, until the return of their parents. Wednesday Misses Sidney and Alice Cullen will leave for Tarboro, N. C., to visit relatives, accompanying Mrs. H. W. Henry that far en route to Virginia.

Mrs. Annie Stroud of Williston is visiting Miss Frances Tarver for a few days.

Judge and Mrs. W. S. Bullock and Miss Alice Bullock will spend several weeks this summer aboard their houseboat, cruising in East Florida waters. The principal destination of their trip will be Fort Lauderdale, to visit the youngest son of Judge and Mrs. Bullock, Mr. Julian Bullock, who is now a practicing attorney in that growing South Florida town. Today Mr. Frank Mathews left for Wekiwa Springs to overhaul the houseboat, after which he will bring it to Silver Springs where the party will go aboard for the extended cruise.

Miss Margaret Taylor will leave within a fortnight for the west, where she will spend several weeks attending the exposition and visiting other points of interest.

Rev. Louis B. Warren, former pastor of the Baptist church, will arrive in the city shortly from Atlanta to spend a few days. Rev. Warren is a true disciple of Sir Isaac Walton and piscatorial trips, a number of which are now brewing, will be the order of the day when he arrives.

Mrs. Fulwood and Miss Ervin of Citra, accompanied by the former's nieces, Misses Jessie and May Standley of Bartow, were visitors today.

Mr. R. F. Flowers and son Mr. Ben Flowers of St. Petersburg, have concluded a visit of several days to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Durand, leaving in their car for Atlanta to spend two weeks before continuing their trip to San Francisco to attend the exposition.

Miss Mary Connor returned to Gainesville today accompanied by E. C. Smith, Jr., Sam Phillips, Webster Gillen, Henry Connor and Miss Maude McIntosh and Miss Miriam Connor, who will assist her in a recital tonight.

Miss Adele Bittinger entertained delightfully this afternoon the young ladies auction club. The meetings with Miss Bittinger are always among the most enjoyable and added interest was given the one today for it was the first time in several weeks that the members have met to play. There were two tables and composing them were Misses Alice Bullock, Marie von Engelken, Eugenia Fuller, Hope Robinson, Hester Dewey, Annie Atkinson, Mrs. Harry Walters and Mrs. James Taylor. The prize was a deck of cards and following the games sandwiches and ice tea were served, Miss Helen Brown joining the players in time for refreshments. The club will meet next week with Miss Alice Bullock.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee of Ocala were arrivals at the Royal yesterday. Mr. Lee is a hustling real estate dealer of Marion county and is here on business.—Tampa Times.

LITTLE GRANDMAS IN GRANDMA LAND

On the afternoon and at night of July 1st, a company of about fifty of these little old fashioned people were at the Temple theater to furnish amusement for a good crowd of their friends who were gathered there to greet them, which they did with great applause.

There were several drills by 20 girls dressed in white robes with sashes of red and blue.

These drills were much enjoyed. The marching children formed the letter W. C. T. U. and marched in good time to the music. After winding the white ribbon around the world in the form of a globe, the old ladies gathered around the tea table for a little gossip, after which someone suggested that they have a minuet.

Several little gentlemen, dressed in beautiful Gorge Washington costumes came in then and removing their chairs, formed three sets for a minuet which they performed very creditably. After another short visit among themselves and the following songs were rendered: "Auld Lang Syne," by Brent Woods; a song by Clara Curry, and the old time song, "I Cannot Sing the Old Songs," by Gertrude Smith. The Virginia reel was then called for and the little old ladies and gentlemen went through with it perfectly and won much credit for themselves and those who drilled and trained them.

Mrs. D. A. Smith had this entertainment in charge and deserves the highest praise for faithful and untiring work in drilling these little ones. She was assisted by Mrs. Whitley, Mrs. Harris McAteer, Mrs. R. L. Carter, and Miss Emma Washburn, with Miss Mabel Aiken as pianist.

Miss Maud McIntosh gave several choice selections on the piano and the juvenile orchestra, composed of Misses Cecie Robert, Lyndal Matthews and Majorie Burnett and Melville Little and Sam Phillips, furnished some fine music. Miss Lillie Bailly also assisted with the violin music.

This was an enjoyable affair and brought quite a neat sum into the W. C. T. U. treasury.

Compels All Impurities To Abandon System

Blood Troubles Can not Remain If Properly Treated.

There is in S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, a property that absolutely compels harmful impurities to disintegrate and lose their identity. No matter what they are called nor how destructive they are there is in S. S. S. a powerful, soothing counter influence to annihilate the most eruptive germ, causes the mucus linings to convert it into an inert substance that is quickly thrown out of the blood and out of the body by the skin, lungs, kidneys, bowels, and destroyed in the liver. There is not a single advance in medicine today that in any sense is an improvement over S. S. S. Surgery is a wonderful, masterful science, but when it comes to purifying the blood S. S. S. stands alone. Thousands of doctors have prescribed it. Their patients do not always know it is S. S. S., because they leave the treatment to the doctor implicitly. But fair-minded doctors long ago realized that in the vegetable nature of S. S. S. were certain ingredients that to the blood in sickness were just as essential as the flesh-building elements of the grains, meats, fats and sugars of our daily food. The average doctor is humane and of trained intelligence. He has seen the recoveries from worst cases of blood trouble by the use of S. S. S. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today or any drugist. Accept no substitute. And if you wish proper advice on any form of blood trouble, write to the Medical Adviser, The Swift Specific Co., 102 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is worth while doing so.

Just Why We Sneeze.

Sneezing may be due to one of a number of causes. A bright light will cause many people to sneeze, as also the pollen of certain plants, while there are few people but will sneeze in the presence of dust. When you have a cold the sneezing is due to an attempt by nature to cure you. She is trying to make you sneeze for the same purpose that she wants you to shiver—to generate heat for warming the blood and preventing you from taking more cold—to help relieve the cold you have. For one does not sneeze with his nose, but with the entire body. During the act every muscle of the body gives a jump, as it were. It goes into a sort of spasm that warms the entire system.—New York American.

Forgot Her Sister.

A woman from a small town, in the city to do some shopping, stepped up to a clerk at the hosiery counter in one of the department stores. "Say," she said, "I want to get two pairs of stockings like my sister from Kentucky bought here last August." "I don't know your sister, and I probably would not remember what she bought, even if I were acquainted with her," explained the clerk. "You must remember my sister." In sisted the customer. "She is a little, heavy set woman."—Indianapolis News.

The Duke's Walk.

"To meet one in the duke's walk." This is an invitation to fight a duel in the vicinity of Holyrood house, Scotland, there is a place called the duke's walk, so called from its being the favorite promenade of the Duke of York, afterward King James II. This walk is said to have been the common rendezvous for settling affairs of honor, as the site of the British museum was in England.

Revenge!

"Why are you so crazy to take mud baths? There's nothing the matter with you." "It's this way, doctor. I was brought up in a lace collar and a Fauntleroy suit. And I always vowed that I would get my share of playing in the mud some day."—Louisville Courier Journal.

It Made a Difference.

"Bluffers is always talking about his love for the plain people." "Yes?" "Well, the other day somebody called his daughter plain, and he was hotter than a red headed hornet."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Curious Old Custom.

In Peru it was once the custom for domestic servants to have two of their upper front teeth extracted. Their absence indicated servitude.

Traveling Man's Experience

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from four a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere. Adv.
